

Rhonda N. Hall has over 25 years of experience leading Human Resource and Organizational Development teams through process and performance improvements. While new to the Credit Union movement, she has found her calling and is gladly answering that call. Drawing from her experience at large organizations ranging in size from 15,000 to 150,000 employees, she tailors the systems, process and performance levels for the culture and size appropriate to Credit Unions. With a keen focus on releasing human potential, she prides herself on teaching others to fish, mentoring and growing staff to realize their full potential. Rhonda serves as the Vice President of Human Resources and Organizational Development at University Federal Credit Union (UFCU) based in Austin, Texas.
